

The Sukkot of Moshiach
By Rabbi Yehudah ben Shomeyr

"What a day, that will be, when my Jesus, I shall see, when I look, upon His face, the One who saved me, by His grace. When He takes me by the hand, and leads me through, the Promised Land, what a day, glorious day, that will be."

I bet the Festival of Sukkot was the furthest thing from the Christian hymnist mind when they penned these words. But growing up Christian, this song cannot help but spring to my mind when I think of Sukkot and the Moshiach Yeshua.

Positive Commandment 16

"HakHail" - Assembling the entire Jewish People

Deuteronomy 31:12 "Gather the people together, men and women, and children"

When Mashiach comes you will hear the radio announcing:

"This is the M.T.N. (Mashiach Times News) Radio, announcing the biggest greatest, most phenomenal Jewish reunion to be held on the second day of Sukkot!

The last convention, seven years ago, was an outstanding occasion. All men, women and children are invited to this festive gathering."

At the end of the Shemita year (see Positive Mitzvah 140), we are commanded to gather at the Beit HaMikdash in Jerusalem.

Portions of the Torah are read aloud by the king at this assembly, uniting the Jewish people and inspiring all in the service of Hashem.

– Chabad.org

Won't that be the most wonderful Sukkot ever!? The Sukkot when Messiah returns, we are all gathered together at the 3rd Temple and The One who spoke the world into creation, the One in Who's words are the very Breath of Life, The Living Word, the Living Torah, Yeshua Ha Moshiach will read the very Torah He authored and gave to Moshe Rabbinu over 4000 years ago! Hearing the Torah read by the Author Himself!
We will celebrate Messiah's Birth, Return, Our deliverance from Egypt and Exile, and His eternal reign all at the same time. "What day, glorious day," What an 8 day celebration that will be!

